

School Balance Problem Statement

Author: Jaydee Malonado

Problem Statement:

Maintaining a balance between school responsibilities and social/ networking opportunities can become difficult for many college students.

Details:

I came upon this question as a couple of my friends and I have been struggling with balancing our school work and social life. Speaking with other student around campus other expressed the same frustration.